Ocean Casa del Mar Cayo Santa Maria Cuba	H10 Hotels has opened the five-star Ocean Casa del Mar, a newly-built resort with an ideal beachfront location. unbeatable location on top of a five-metre-high cliff which runs down to the turquoise waters of the Caribbean. The lobby offers views of the cliff, while opposite is a spectacular infinity pool which seems to join the hotel to the sea. Part of the resort runs along the seafront and it is bounded on one side by a large idyllic beach on the shores of a bay, which cannot be accessed from the road, and on the other side by a smaller beach. The rest of the complex is arranged around a second large pool.

The resort has been decorated in harmony with its surroundings; an abundance of light shades contrast with splashes of brighter colours such as turquoise. The Ocean Vista Azul is a thoroughly contemporary hotel, which can be seen both in its decoration and the fact that Wi-Fi is available throughout the facilities. It also has a theatre, internet corner and free parking, among a number of other services.

The bright, spacious rooms are decorated in a modern style and have a terrace or balcony. There are three categories of room: Deluxe, Deluxe Privilege and Royal Master Suites. passionate people, led by Jean-Marc Eustache, Lina De Cesare and Philippe Sureau, created Trafic Voyages, a wholesaler specializing in travel from Quebec to France.

In 1987, the Company made a great leap with the adoption of a forward-looking vision focused on growth and vertical integration. The company, which was then renamed Transat, was listed on the stock exchange through an IPO and used the proceeds to establish its own airline, Air Transat. It also embarked on a series of acquisitions in order to solidify its position as an outgoing tour operator in Canada and France, as well as to develop new destination markets.

From acquisition to acquisition, Transat expanded across Canada and continued to develop its sun destinations as well as routes from Canada to Europe and many other countries. The company quickly became the leader in sun destinations and services to Europe. It also became the leader in tourist travel from European countries to Canada and offers a wide range of both short- and long-haul destination countries and holiday options departing from France.

In 1988, Transat considerably expanded its presence in retail distribution with the acquisition of an interest in the franchisor Consultour. Over the years, it also broke into the airport ground handling services, and also became the largest incoming tour operator in Canada with the acquisition of Jonview Canada.

The Company entered the French market very early on with Vacances Transat (France), the largest tour operator offering travel to Canada, and soon expanded within France, the United Kingdom and the rest of Europe. It acquired French tour operator Look Voyages in 1996, Greek incoming tour operator Tourgreece in 2001, British tour operator Canadian Affair in 2006 and French tour operator Amplitude Internationale, specializing in travel to Tunisia, in 2007. At its destinations, the company opened offices in Mexico, the Dominican Republic and Florida in order to be able to provide its customers with complementary services. In 2007, Transat created a 1,600-room joint venture with the major Spanish chain H10 Hotels in Mexico and the Dominican Republic.

In Canada, Transat now has some 500 travel agencies and is the largest travel agency network since the acquisition of the Thomas Cook agencies in 2006. Brands include Transat Travel, Club Voyages, Voyages en Liberté, Marlin Travel, TravelPlus and tripcentral.ca.
